

Project Title	Communicable Disease Internship
UDOH Project Lead	Rebecca L. Ward
Email	rward@utah.gov	Phone	801-538-6682
Work Location	Utah Department of Health (288 N 1460 W, Salt Lake City, UT)
Project Description	The mission of the Bureau of Epidemiology in the Utah Department of Health is to prevent sickness and death from infectious diseases and environmental hazards; to monitor diseases; to reduce spread; and to monitor and respond to potential bioterrorism threats or events, communicable disease outbreaks, epidemics and other unusual occurrences of illness. The Disease, Response, Evaluation, Analysis, and Monitoring (DREAM) Program in the Bureau of Epidemiology is seeking a part-time intern to assist with the development and revision of infectious disease plans utilized by state and local public health epidemiologists for disease investigation and public health control measures. The intern will conduct literature research and update current written communicable disease protocols, including disease and epidemiology information, public health control measures and case investigation.
Prerequisites	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Current Bachelor or MPH student or master level student in related field (health promotion, social work, etc.) • Working knowledge of Microsoft Office • Literature research skills • Strong organization skills; detail-oriented • Ability to communicate effectively (written, visual and verbal) • Ability to work independently
Project Start Date	January 9, 2017		Project End Date	April 7, 2017
Hours per week	10-15	Total number of hours		Pay rate	Unpaid
Other Details	Primary worksite is the Cannon Health Building. Hours are flexible: 8:00 am – 5:00 pm Monday – Friday.				